County court Monday.

Get out the garden tools.

Work at the K. P. lodge Friday evening.

The usual cry, "The peach crop is killed," is now due.

A number of fine horses will be on exhibition Monday.

Judge Shugars says "trade" is unusually poor in his court.

The small boy will soon be digging his bait, getting ready for Saturday.

Better let the garden alone for a few weeks. Wait 'till you are convinced that there will be no more snow.

Dr. Pearce will fill his pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning. The Epworth League will meet in afternoon at usual hour.

The milliners have a beautiful line of spring goods and the ladies have been flocking to see the displays. See announcement of openings.

Deputy County Clerk, Ed Doty, went out to Dix river one afternoon last week and bagged eight or ten snipe, a bird very rare and scarce in this locality. They are hard to shoot, but Ed is one of Garrard's best shots.

Attorney R L Davidson has moved his office to room formerly occupied by Col John W Miller while Master Commissioner, where he will be glad to see his old friends and any new ones having legal business to be looked after.

No clew has been found in the Rucker assassination, at Danville, and it looks as if the guilty will go unpunished. The officers have done all that humans can, but with absolutely nothing to work on, it was a fruitless task.

Millinery Opening.
Noel Sisters have their Spring Opening of Pattern hats, Saturday, March 26, 1904. Miss Lilly invites her old friends and customers of Lancaster to come over to Danville and see their elegant display.

Mrs Florence Bacon, of Boston, Mass., is here this week getting a class in physical culture. Mrs Bacon is one of the best teachers in the country, and our people have a rare opportunity to take instructions from her. She is stopping at the New Mason Hotel.

A Pleasant Evening.
The Preachersville Masonic Lodge, which entertained a number of Lancaster brethren recently, came down Tuesday and attended a meeting of Lancaster Lodge, 104. Supper was served at the Mason Hotel, after which the lodge meeting was held, during which a candidate was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason. The supper was served at the regular hour and in the manner in which Masons delight, that is, without any blow or parade. The usual cut and dried, tiresome and windy speeches were ruled out.

A Good Lodge.
A number of local Knights of Pythians attended the district meeting at Stanford, and report a most delightful visit. Taken all 'round, Stanford has one of the best K. P. lodges in the state. It is composed of the best men in that section, every one a gentleman, one with whom you feel it an honor to be seen. Few lodges succeed in keeping out an occasional black sheep, and we congratulate Diadem Lodge on her successful resolution to keep the bars up against the burr tail element. It is the only way to maintain a good lodge, as all experienced lodge men will say.

Illustration.
John E. Stormes, one of Lancaster's druggists and most popular citizens, has been spending some weeks in Florida. Being a great fisherman, he put in most of his time on the gulf and banks of the many streams in that locality. Monday, he had a very narrow escape from a most horrible death. Having visited that country last year, he thought he was surely "on to the ropes" when he went down this winter, and frequently did things which his guide cautioned him not to do. At

Mr A E Hundley writes that he will be here Monday with the celebrated stallion, Kentucky's Artist, and will exhibit him on the streets. Kentucky's Artist has attracted attention of the horsemen from all over the state, and his presence Monday will be enjoyed by all lovers of fine horseflesh.

"Pat" Gives Good Excuse.

When a jury in the circuit court brought in a verdict Tuesday, it read that the defendant be confined in the "Pen," for such a length of time, etc. Judge Bell soon noticed the abbreviation, and called the foreman, Henry Patterson and asked why it was done. "An abbreviation will not do in a verdict," said he. "Well," replied Henry, "your honor, there was not a man on the jury who could spell 'penitentiary,' and we had to abbreviate it."

Circuit Court.

The present term of court is by far the smallest in volume of business of any held in recent years. There were some suits on the dockets, but none of interest to the general public. The dockets have been pretty well cleared, the juries doing most excellent work and sticking the screws to the small fry criminals. Aaron Smith and Ben Wallace were sent to the penitentiary for one and two years, respectively, for house-breaking, which were all the penitentiary convictions. The case against Jno. Metcalfe for killing his brother, was continued until next court, on account of the illness of Col Welch, one of the attorneys.

Will Accomplish Much Good.

The Record, whose chief aim is to assist in bringing about that which is best for the community, wishes to express its great delight at the good resulting from the musical entertainment at the Christian church last Friday. People will seek amusement and pleasure and it is the duty of the Christian people to put in their reach that which will uplift and lead people to better lives. Such entertainments as the organ recital, and the beautiful singing bring people to the church who would not attend otherwise, and as it is this class for whom the church should reach out, the music will serve to accomplish something which has always been a proposition to the ministers. We congratulate the congregation, and especially Bro. Tinder, upon this spirit to not only bring more pleasure to regular attendants, but encourage those out in the world to come to the sanctuary.

Can't Equal Richmond.

Mr. John S Marrs, the clever clerk at the Hotel Glyndon, Richmond, was here a few days recently, and surprised the friends of his old home by "blowing" about Richmond. He seemed to have gone back on his old home, as every thing mentioned here could not come up to what "we have in Richmond." Richmond is one of the best towns on the map, but the boys could not stand for Marrs' "laying it" over Lancaster, so set about to "fix it" with him. He was staying at the Mason Hotel, and the proprietor, Owen Shugars, sent a servant to Dix River and had him catch a large mud turtle. The turtle was placed in Marrs' bed. That night, he retired about 11 o'clock, and shortly after came running through the hall into the office clad only in a short night shirt, and yelling at the top of his voice, "My gawd! Run up and see what's in that bed!" he gasped. Mr Shugars accompanied Marrs back to the room. "Look, look, what is that?" pleaded Marrs. "That? Oh, that is nothing but a Lancaster bed bug," calmly replied Shugars. "Oh, is that?" said Marrs, "why didn't you say so. We have 'em so much larger in Richmond, that I did not know what it was."

Bring us your Job Work.

The Loyal Legion will meet at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Eid F M Tinder will preach at Christ church next Lord's day on the following subjects: 10:45 "The church a Spiritual Force." 7:15 "The Dignity of Labor."

The Ladies' Aid Society will have an exchange at the Post Office Saturday afternoon. All kinds of country produce will be on hand at low prices. Fresh butter, eggs, old ham, jowls, and in fact anything in the eating line. These exchanges will be held every Saturday until further notice.

Big Athletic Tournament.

The Lancaster Athletic Association is completing arrangements for the largest tournament ever held in Central Kentucky, and indications point to a most successful meeting. There will be no restrictions, and teams may work all the "ringers" they please to, so some lively contests will be seen.

The dates are June 22, 23 and 24. Full particulars and details will be given in next issue of The Record.

Handsome Souvenir.

Senator George T. Farris has our thanks for a pretty calendar and souvenir of the recent Legislature. It contains a list of members of the body, pictures of all the presidents of the United States, and last, but by no means least, a handsome photo of the Senator. No member of the Senate did harder, or more faithfully, work than did Senator Farris, and those who want honest legislation, and especially those who are opposed to whisky, appreciate his valiant services. The temperance people owe him a debt of gratitude, and we believe they fully appreciate his good work.

Business Change.

When the statement, "Tom Walker has sold his hardware store," was passed around this week, there were many expressions of regret that the clever gentleman and his popular son and partner, John, were to retire from business in our city. They have conducted the large establishment for several years, and enjoyed a large patronage. They were leaders in every move for improvement and always cheerful and liberal contributors to any move for the town's betterment. They will return to farming, and we sincerely trust will continue as residents of Lancaster. The stock was purchased by Messrs. Robt. L. Elkin, of this city, and J. R. Mount, of Covington. The new firm is composed of experienced business men, and their success is a foregone conclusion. The stock is now being invoiced.

Would Work Well in Lancaster.

Jessamine Journal:—The recent grand jury indicted the town of Nicholasville under the head of nuisance for permitting certain houses and stands known as weinerwurst stands to be built on and across the sidewalks and for permitting disorderly conduct upon the streets and for the using of profane and indecent language. This is a move in the right direction, for there is no reason why a man should be permitted to swear upon the streets where ladies are constantly passing and using indecent language in the presence of children. If every citizen in Nicholasville should adopt the same plan as that of Esq. James F. Barkley, who has upon several occasions had parties arrested for profanity and using indecent language, such nuisances would soon be stopped.

Automobile Free.

The Royal Tailors will give 10 Automobiles to their customers absolutely free. Each customer stands an equal chance to get one, see J C Hennipill, who will tell you all about it. 3-25-TF

A Deserving Young Man.

The accompanying half-tone engraving is a fairly good likeness of one of Lancaster's most popular and deserving attorneys, Mr R L Davidson. Mr Davidson was born and reared in Garrard county, being a son of Mr Leander Davidson, one of our substantial citizens and farmers. Mr Davidson was a close student while in the local schools, much of his time being spent in Garrard College. He then entered the law department of the University, at Lexington, where he graduated receiving first honors in a large class. He then entered the law department of the University of Virginia, where he graduated, receiving the 1st Thesis prize, an award offered each year for the best paper upon some question of law. He returned to Lancaster, and soon received his license at the local bar. He has continued the practice of his profession in our city, and enjoys a remarkably good practice. Mr Davidson is a model citizen in every

the time mentioned above, he wandered away from the guide and sought a cozy nook where he thought he would get a "bite." He had scarcely located when a large alligator spied him, swam slowly up to the spot and made a rush for the bank and the faithful Garrard county fisherman. Very fortunately, the guide had missed Mr Stormes and followed him up, and just as the monster was preparing to leap upon the Lancaster pillar, the guide sank an axe into the animal's head, killing it instantly. The whole thing occurred so quickly that Mr S. did not realize the danger until the guide had struck the fatal blow, and then the narrow escape dawned upon him, so gasping, "Run for the jug!" he fainted and sank to the ground. The jug was procured, some old "Barlow & Stone" (which Jack had been keeping in his cellar for many years) was applied and he was soon making fall tracks for the hotel. He left for Lancaster that night and is expected home today or tomorrow.

CENTRAL RECORD

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky., March 25, 1904.

If the newspaper men knew what a fight their committee had to retain the advertising law, they would ponder well before supporting another cheap screw politician for the Legislature. The newspapers are responsible for who is elected, and the boys will do well to take the advice of one who had some experience with matters of value to the craft and support only men who are for the good of the people-at-large, and give no support whatever to men who allow their hatred of some paper (who has exposed some fraud, more than likely) to make them fight laws which every sensible man knows should be upon the statute books.

The latest move to drive capital out of the state is the effort to collect a large and unjust tax from the State banks. People talk of Kentucky lagging at the tail end of the procession, when it is really a wonder that capital is invested here at all. Every corporation is taxed to the limit, and on every trivial matter and everything possible is done to drive money out of Kentucky. It is all brought about by peanut politicians.

Another Russian war vessel has committed hari-kari by running against a mine and getting blown up. The Japs will save ammunition if they let the Russian navy alone. It will destroy itself in time.

There is always something to be thankful for. Just now, as man, poor man, is brooding over the winter's coal bills, the billy goat butts in and announces bock beer on tap.

News from the Jap war is just about as interesting as the graduating essay at a school commencement, and equally as difficult to understand.

The employees of the American Can Co., Chicago, are on a strike. As the season for "rushing the can" is drawing nigh, this may cause trouble.

Those fool robbins and blue birds that gave us a false alarm of spring a few weeks ago are getting what they deserve.

With the Smoot investigation and the Bristow report, Congress is better than a vaudeville show.

Senator Farris' Eagle Eye.

Just before adjournment of the Legislature, the whisky element tried to "work a rabbit's foot," by slipping through a bill which would permit the sale of beer in local option precincts. Our own Senator George T. Farris, who is up to the tricks of the lobbyists, had a weather eye out, however, and let the cat out of the bag when the bill was up to "place malt tonics under the jurisdiction of the pure food law." Farris, in stentorian tones, stated that the object of the bill was none other than a gigantic scheme to authorize the sale of beer in every local option precinct in the state; that the bill says all malt liquors containing less than 5 per cent of alcohol shall be classed as non-intoxicating food, and if malt tonics and malt extracts are classed as liquid foods, as this bill sought to class them, then any sort of malt brew, including beer, which contains less than 5 per cent of alcohol, could be sold as food anywhere in the state and absolutely defeat the local option law, so far as prohibiting the sale of beer is concerned. The bill was about to slip through without any one knowing its real intent, and the roll call on its passage had reached Farris' name before the cunning scheme was exposed. The bill was then defeated. It had passed the House almost unanimously as its hidden intent was not exposed.

Good Spirits

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver-and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all drugists.

Do It Today.

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking, cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks.

Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Bosc'h's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.

Death of Charles Lee.

On Tuesday, March 1, death entered our home and took from us dear and beloved one who was so dear and precious to us. It was so hard to give him up, but while our loss is great, his gain is greater. He suffered for some time with a dreadful cough and bronchial trouble. He was 66 years old and a member of the Christian church for about 40 years. He was a true Christian and always ready and willing to help those in need and trouble.

He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters to mourn their great loss.

Oh, may we live as he did'st live, oh, may we love as thou did'st love, oh, may we forgive as thou did'st forgive, oh, may we join you in heaven above, Jesus has called him home, our pride and loved one of our home. We thank our many kind friends for their kindness during our great bereavement.

She is at present nursing Mrs. J. G. Blanton, at Stamping Ground. Any one needing the services of a trained nurse will do well to remember Miss Arnold. At the graduation exercises last week, Dr. Lewis McMurtry, well-known here, delivered the principal address.

The Christian church was filled with representative Lancaster people Friday evening, the occasion being the dedication of the new Kilgen pipe organ. The many expressions of delight and words of praise of the performers go to prove the writer's opinion that the entertainment was one of the most successful and delightful ever given in Lancaster, and our town has always been noted for its good musicians and taste in such matters. The program, as printed in last issue of The Record, was rendered, but an enjoyable number added was the clarinet solo by Mr. Brown Anderson, of Nicholasville. Mrs. J. C. Taylor, of Lexington, presided at the organ, and her selections were highly appreciated. Her playing showed marked ability and careful training, and the liberal applause was a testimonial of the appreciation by the audience. Mrs. Juliet Gill Rogers, whose sweet soprano voice and gracious manner have won the hearts of our people, sang in a manner quite incomparable. She was in excellent voice and sang with a lightness, delicacy and dramatic effect that far exceeded her enthusiastic applause.

Mr. Rogers, who is gifted with an exceptionally fine voice, was educated at Miss Clara Baur's Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, an institution which enjoys the reputation of being the most careful and painstaking of any in the United States. Her last number, "Cavatina" from La Favorita, was "Cavatina" from La Favorita. Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be born in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grippe, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results.

Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results. Sold by Frisbie's Drug Store." 1m
